

Vanquis Savings Product Information – Notice Cash ISA

Product Information – Notice Cash ISA

This document sets out the specific terms that apply to the Notice Cash ISA you hold with us. They form part of our agreement with you, along with the General Terms and any other documents we say apply. If there are differences between this Product Information and the General Terms, this Product Information will take priority. Please refer to the General Terms for the full terms and conditions which apply to our Cash ISAs and the Summary box which summarises key information relating to our Cash ISAs.

	Key Information	Details
1.	Who can have this account	You need to be at least 18 years old and a UK tax resident to open an account.
		You can only hold the account in your own name.
		The total balance of all savings accounts you hold with us must not exceed £250,000 plus any interest paid.
2.	Interest rate	For details of the interest rate on this account, please see the Summary Box we gave you with this agreement.
		The interest rate for your account is variable. We will let you know if we are going to change the interest rate as set out in the General Terms under What changes we can make to these terms?
3.	Paying money into your account	You can deposit between £1,000 and your remaining annual ISA allowance (you can find the current allowance on our website). You may also transfer existing ISAs from other providers into this account. Any transfer of current tax year deposits will reduce your available allowance. If you are transferring ISAs from previous tax years, this has no impact on your ISA allowance for the current tax year. These limits are subject to HM Revenue & Customs rules.
		You must make your initial deposit within 30 days of your account opening.
		Other than transfers of existing ISAs, all payments must be made from the account you identified to us for the purpose of making payments in and out of this account. The account you identified is called your ' nominated account '.
4.	Taking money out	You can withdraw your money at any time either by giving the required number of days' notice as set out in the Summary Box, or without giving notice where a deduction of interest equivalent to the notice period will apply. This means you might get back less than you originally deposited. You can only withdraw money from your account by paying it into your nominated account or transferring to another ISA provided by us or another ISA manager. For more details please see the General Terms under How can you take money from your account? This is a flexible ISA meaning if you make a withdrawal you can replace the money you've withdrawn without it counting towards your annual ISA subscription limit, providing you replace the funds in the same tax year you withdraw them. If you die, your ISA will become a 'continuing account of a deceased investor' and the exemption from tax in relation to income and gains earned in respect of your ISA shall continue until the earlier of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the completion of the administration of your estate • the day falling on the third anniversary of your death, or • the closure of your account due to all cash deposits and other proceeds being withdrawn We will close your account on the date on which it ceases to be a 'continuing account of a deceased investor'.

5.	Closing your account	You can ask us to close your account by contacting us and asking us to transfer it to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a new ISA (either with us or a different ISA manager) • your nominated account, or • giving us your new account details and this account will become your nominated account You can ask us to close your account with notice, in which case we will make any transfers after the relevant notice period expires, or alternatively you can request that we close your account immediately, in which case we will make a deduction of interest equivalent to the relevant notice period. Transfers to an account which isn't an ISA will result in a loss of tax-free status on the amount withdrawn, meaning that if you decide to redeposit your money into another ISA at a later stage you will only be able to do so up to your remaining annual ISA subscription limit.
